

Student Bulletin

Student Bulletin

12 January 2017

College ID and Behavior: Some Blunt Messages

- We expect all students to wear ID visibly at all times. Not in your bag or pocket but round your neck.
- If you forget your ID in the morning, you need to buy a day pass. It costs £1. If you have neither your ID nor £1, you will need to go home and get it.
- Any student found to have tailgated the turnstiles and got into the college without an ID will be put on the disciplinary process and treated harshly.
- We expect and demand that all Woodhouse students are courteous and polite at all times to both staff and other students.
- Some students have struggled with punctuality. We have many students who come long distances to college and yet get here on time, because they get the earlier bus to make sure of it. If you are late at work, you will get sacked; the same is true here.

John Rubinstein

Mock Exam Results

It is a fact that we generally get the results we deserve.

If your results were disappointing – and especially if they were below your MAG (or below your UCAS predicted grade for A2 students) – then you are underachieving. There is a simple remedy for underachievement: increase the quantity and quality of your work. It may be that you need to increase the time you spend outside the classroom, and it may be that you need to review what work you are doing in that time. If you are not clear how to do this, make time to speak with your tutor and teachers. Do it this week: your future may depend on it.

John Rubinstein

Summer 2017 Exams

Reminder - re-sit forms are available from your teacher and also on Moodle. Please see the exams officer if you would like to take a private language exam.

Forms with payment will be collected in the social area between 1.00pm – 3.00pm on the following dates only:

Wednesday, 18 January – Jimmy Campbell's ST Group

Wednesday, 25 January – Catherine Snoad's ST Group

If you are unsure whose senior tutor group you are in, please ask your personal tutor.

Anne Sartori

Geology - Visiting Speaker

We are very fortunate to have a visiting geologist come and give a short talk and answer questions.

He will give a short presentation about his job and take questions. He may also bring some rock samples and equipment etc to illustrate the tools of his trade. He is happy to talk about other branches of geology, including mineral/coal geology, hydrogeology and geophysics.

If you are studying geography or physics, this might be interesting to you.

Date: Tuesday, 17 January

Time: 1.30pm

Venue: Room 33

John Rubinstein

For All Modern Language Students

Lancaster University modern languages essay prize 2017.

The topic for this year is 'Languages and Globalisation' which you may interpret as freely as you wish. The essay should be written in French, German or Spanish and should be no longer than 500 words.

The deadline for submission is Wednesday, 18 January 2017.

For further information please see the modern languages noticeboard.

Jenny Pari

The British Biology Olympiad

The British Biology Olympiad will take place between Friday, 20 January – Friday, 27 January 2017 and will consist of two, one hour multiple choice tests taken online in college. Details about the actual test day will be made available closer to the time.

Top scoring students will be offered the opportunity to attend an award ceremony in London in July 2017 and can also be considered to represent the country in the International Biology Olympiad.

Participation is free of charge. Sign up on Woodle.

Linda Doyle

Visit By International Law Firm, Jones Day

Stand in social area - Tuesday, 24 January 12.30pm – 2.30pm.

Ask about:

- Graduate routes into law
- Jones Day's law apprenticeships
- Get advice on succeeding in law!

Joanna Greatwich

College Hoody

If you missed the December order, go to EVENTS and register, make a payment and hand in your form (attached to your email 'I want to order a hoody') to the PE office by: Friday, 20 January.

Chris Mann

Girls' Football is Back Tomorrow!

Come join in in the sports hall every Friday, at 4.30pm.

These sessions are free and delivered by Tottenham Hotspur's foundation coaches.

Francine Zimbalist

Squash Opportunities January - March

There are opportunities to get involved with some free and affordable squash coaching sessions at the Oakleigh Park Lawn Tennis & Squash Club in Whetstone. For more information please come and view the poster outside the PE office.

Francine Zimbalist

Cash Loader Machines

The cash loader machines have now been programmed to accept the new five pound notes.

Carol Kirkland

