

Student Bulletin

Student Bulletin

20 March 2017

Vegetarian or vegan?
Please complete our short survey.

Canteen Thefts

The canteen has reported a number of thefts recently. This is not what we expect from Woodhouse students. We will monitor CCTV.

We do not want thieves here, so if you are found to have stolen something, you can expect your days at college to be numbered.

John Rubinstein

Get Feedback on Your CV From a Professional

When? Monday 27 March and Monday 3 April, 8.30am — 12.00pm

Where? Careers room 30

There are fifteen 15 minute slots available, bookable only by email, with Michael Seager, experienced sales manager and previous Woodhouse Governor, and Rebecca Marriot, consultant at FINTRAIL, a new and energetic form of financial crime risk management.

Register your interest on Woodle events and Joanna will email you to book your feedback slot.

Joanna Greatwich

Rooms 16 and 18

Due to Modern Languages speaking exams, rooms 16 and 18 will no longer be available for private study from Monday 27 March.

Jenny Pari

Enrichment Week 10 — 13 July

There is a fantastic variety of activities being organised for L6 students.

Register on Woodle and make sure you pay online before the end of term, Friday 31 March, otherwise you will lose your place!

Steve Dobson

Lost Property

Any uncollected lost property will be donated to charity at the end of term.

If you think you may have lost something in the college at any time, please ask a member of staff in reception.

Main office

Hidden Voices: FREE Art Project

ARTiculate are running a collage and multimedia art project for 16 — 25 year olds. The project will explore the role of women and the history of mental health in the Royal Air Force.

When? Monday 3 April — Thursday 6 April, 12 — 4pm

Where? RAF Museum, Grahame Park Way, London NW9 5LL

To book a place, contact ARTiculate project manager Jojo on 07948 111 74 or at jojo@communityfocus.co.uk by Thursday 30 March.

Lisa Fry