Woodhouse College

2 March 2015

Student Bulletin

Smoking

Thank you for moving away from the zebra crossing, as we asked.
But – some students have been smoking on the college premises just outside the student entrance.

We take a serious view on this: some students have already received a formal disciplinary warning. Anyone caught twice will be suspended for a day with a letter home.

John Rubinstein

U6 Reps Meetings

Your next meeting will be Tuesday 3 March at 11am. Please note it will be in the millennium zone annex room (not the conference room).

If you can not attend, please ask your deputy to represent you as it's important all groups are represented.

We look forward to seeing you there.

College Council

Woodhouse Debating Society

Look out for the debate on Thursday 5 March.
The motion is: 'Fairtrade holds back the developing world'.

Venue: social area
Time: 1.30pm

Your views will be welcomed. Join in the debate!

Joseph Whelan

UK Linguistics Olympiad

Twenty two students recently took part in the UK Linguistics Olympiad and all deserve praise for dealing with an extremely difficult two and a half hour paper!

Here is a list of the students who received awards in the competition:

Bronze Award (top 30% of the country):
Morgan Rising
Jade Dieumegard
Xavia Pittal

Silver Award (top 15% of the country):
Chakorn Shipp

Congratulations to our winners, and to everyone who participated.

Laura Wall and Jenny Pari

Woodhouse College's Employability Week 9 - 13 March

A week of talks in class times and lunchtimes by employers, universities and sector experts!

Find out how you can:

- Stand out from the crowd when applying for work
- Write a winning CV
- Succeed in competitive applications
- Become confident in interviews
- Become very employable

Book your places on Woodle Events, there will be goody bags! Authorised absence for class time slots.

Woodhouse College's 'Employability Fair'

Thursday 12 March, 12.30pm - 2.30pm in the social area

There will be: job agencies, a presentation on job applications by E4s at 1pm, employers, young enterprise advisers, voluntary work opportunities, ex Woodhouse students to tell you their own stories, school leaver and apprenticeship opportunities plus freebies!

Look out for more events.

Joanna Greatwich

Barnet Schools Trampolining Competition

East Barnet School - Thursday 19 March (morning).

Any experienced trampolinists (boys and girls) who would like to represent the College in this team and individual competition should come to the PE office to register by Friday 6 March.

You must be able to complete a ten bounce routine that includes a front somersault. Training Thursday 5 and Thursday 12 March 4.30pm.

Chris Mann

The Challenge

Congratulations to those of you who won a prize in The Challenge lucky dip on Tuesday. To secure your place on the NCS summer programme, go to www.ncsthechallenge.org and fill out an application form online.

Places are first come, first served and are going quickly! Sign up before Tuesday 17 March to go on the programme for just £35.

If you have any questions or want more information, contact Holly on 07880 038 089.

Carol Kirkland

Message for all students

You can find all the information you might like to know about the College Council and tutor group representative activity on the College Council tab on Woodle.

This includes minutes of all the rep meetings throughout the year. You can also email the Council if you have any queries or wish to raise any points with them.

The College Council/reps board in the social area is also regularly updated.

Thanks for your support.

College Council

Woodhouse Youth Parliament

This year's Woodhouse candidate in the Youth Parliament elections is L6 student Alba Faruku. Alba's campaign manifesto is all about raising awareness about rape through changing attitudes and improving services for victims of rape.

Your tutor handed out a voting card in registration so please give Alba and her campaign your full support by casting your vote. Voting closes Sunday 8 March.

You can view Alba's manifesto on www.barnetukyp.co.uk and she will be available in the social area next week to discuss it with students plus there will be information on Woodle.

Thanks in advance for your support.

Mary Mc Hugh

Christian Union

A time of fun, games, music, discussions and the opportunity to have your questions answered. All faiths welcome!

Time: Wednesday lunch times 1.35pm - 2.30 pm
Place : Room 311 (New Maths block)

Amanda Forshaw on behalf of the Christian Union

Offers and Promotions of the Week

- Beat the clock everyday next week. You can get your lunch for free if the alarm bell rings whilst you are at the till.
- Get a free portion of your favourite salad when you purchase a jacket potato and a filling.
- Plenty of Fairtrade products available: cakes, hot chocolate, bananas and more.