

Student Bulletin

Student Bulletin

12 March 2018

U6 Talk - How to Apply for Student Finance

Thursday 15 March, at 1.15pm - room 31.

Going to university in 2018? You need to apply for student finance now.

Amira – an expert from Middlesex University, will be here to take you through the process and give you some top tips:

- Applying for funding and a student loan
- What you are entitled to
- How to get extra funding
- Register at the session to get started now

Register now on Woodle events - limited spaces.

Joanna Greatwich

L6 - University of Leicester

Free residential summer schools on campus, 25-29 June or 2-6 July 2018
(permission to attend can be given)

A fully funded week at Leicester University - including travel, accommodation and meals - to allow you to acclimatise to university and really find out if it's for you. It includes study and life skills sessions, meeting up with current students, and finding out about the social and academic side of a degree.

Criteria apply - and at least one of the following:

- Free School Meals eligibility
- School bursary

For more information get in touch with Dan Flatt dan.flatt@le.ac.uk

Joanna Greatwich

A Level Dance Performance

The A level dance students will be performing a mock of their exam dances on Friday 16 March from 5pm-7pm in the main dance studio. We would love your support. If you're interested in being an audience member then contact the dance teacher by email hsadler@woodhouse.ac.uk to reserve a chair, as space will be limited.

Haley Sadler

Meeting

Could all society, action team, and club leaders please come to an informal meeting with the college council communications team this Tuesday 13 March, at lunchtime in room 2.

Samantha Evans on behalf of college council communications team

Part Time Tuition Work - Kumon Centre

Duties to include:

Setting up, arriving 15 minutes before the class starts, and helping to set up the classroom - putting out tables, chairs and teaching materials. During the class, carrying out a range of administrative and other duties, principally:

Marking and recording

- Marking work which students have completed that day
- Recording results of homework done during the previous week in each student's record book
- Watching out for students requesting assistance, and alerting the instructor

Instructing (Helping younger students by)

- Encouraging them to use correct study skills such as:
  - i) correct posture
  - ii) focus/concentration
  - iii) working at a steady pace
  - iv) getting them to turn to the next page by themselves
- Reading & explaining instructions on each page to the child
- Noting details of each child's lesson and progress made

Breaking down

- After class, for 15 minutes, breaking down the classroom by tidying away tables, chairs and teaching materials

Class day

- Mon & Thursday from 3:30pm-6:30pm (Monday definitely required , Monday and/or Thursday if candidate is available)

Requirement

- Warm and confident attitude, with good communication skills and the ability to multitask
- Strong in maths (preferably studying for A-level)

Rate is £5/hour, please send cv to goldersgreen@kumoncentre.co.uk

John Rubinstein on behalf Kaori Tojo, Kumon Centre

CGP Books

The library will be taking orders for CGP books from Monday 12 March. See a member of the library staff for the price list and order sheet. Orders must be placed and paid for before the end of Friday 23 March and you will be emailed when they can be collected from us; ideally on or before 28 March and before the Easter holidays!

Michelle Junnor

Photocopiers

Please don't leave your printing and photocopying until the last minute. There are three photocopiers available for all students to use: one in the library, one in the millennium learning zone and one in the north wing learning zone. They can get very busy at this time of year so allow enough time and save yourself any stress.

IT Department

