

Student Bulletin

Student Bulletin

14 May 2018

CGP Book Orders

Final orders for CGP books this academic year must be placed and paid for at the Library before 2pm this Wednesday 16 May. You will be emailed when the books are available for collection.

Michelle Junnor

Need Help Managing Exam Stress?

This Wednesday 16 May at lunchtime there is a workshop from a professional psychologist on how to manage stress in the lead up to exams. It will be really practical with lots of tips to help you. Anyone is welcome and it will last about 45 minutes. Please come to room 30 at 1.15pm, you can bring your lunch.

Olivia Stanton

Library– Saturday Opening!

Students have asked us about weekend opening of the library as exams approach. On a trial basis, we are planning to open the library for the next four Saturdays 10-4pm.

Students will only be able to use the library (or the picnic tables in the quad), but no other inside part of the College, because it is let out at weekends to community groups.

Students will need to show ID at entry to the library.

We will review how it goes after the first Saturday.

John Rubinstein

KEEP CALM
YOUR LIBRARY
IS OPEN

Safeguarding

There are new posters up near Student Services relating to sexual consent. Whether you are sexually active or not, you may find these two links interesting:

<https://riseabove.org.uk/article/the-basics-of-sexual-consent/>

<https://www.disrespectnobody.co.uk/consent/signs-to-spot/>

If you need any support please speak to Lucy or Ally, Safeguarding Officers in Student Services.

Lucy Tobin Howard

Carol Kirkland on behalf of Edwards & Blake