

Student Bulletin

Student Bulletin

22 January 2018

L6 - Assemblies

Lower sixth assemblies TODAY for Ms Snoad's cohort.

If you are in Ms Snoad's cohort you have an hour long assembly today on eSafety. Go straight to assembly at 12pm and the register will be taken there. If you are in Ms Thiruudian's cohort you will have tutorial as normal and go to assembly the following Monday. You must go to the correct assembly to avoid overcrowding.

Ms Snoad's tutors are:

Farida Ahmed, Katerina Apostolidou, Chris Checketts, Francesca Cioci, Natalie Collins, Sophie Durant, Stephen Hodges, Sandra Knight, John O'Shea, Jal Patel, Alex Olantiti, John Rhodes, Yvette Ruchniewicz, Philip Smith, Ryan Verbena and Danni Youziel.

Olivia Stanton

L6 - Higher Education Exploration Afternoon

Wednesday 31 January 2pm - 4.30pm.

This is a compulsory event for all L6 students. University academics, experts and students are coming from across the UK - just to talk to you. There are a range of 48 talks to choose from.

Action needed from you now: On your Woodle profile, choose three talks in order of preference - first come first served. If you do not choose your talks we will choose for you!

Any questions please email careers@woodhouse.ac.uk

Joanna Greatwich

Bank of England and the Windsor Fellowship

The Bank of England and the Windsor Fellowship are offering students from a black or mixed African/Caribbean background a scholarship programme to financially support you whilst at university.

The programme will provide you with:

- Up to £30,000 to support living costs during your undergraduate degree
- Paid summer internships
- Mentoring, coaching and support from a member of our team

The programme is open to students with:

- At least 102 UCAS points (equivalent to BCC or above)
- Household income below £50,000
- You must be planning to start a full-time undergraduate degree in Autumn 2018

See: <https://www.windsor-fellowship.org/bank-of-england>

Joanna Greatwich

Quiet Room

If there is not enough room in the quiet room, feel free to use any empty classroom as long as you leave it as you find it.

John Rubinstein

Holocaust Survivor Talk

Come and hear from one of our students, who recently attended a trip to Auschwitz, and a talk by a survivor from the holocaust on webcast.

Friday 26 January: 9.30am – 11.00am, in the Conference Room.

Sign up on Woodle events.

Missing a lesson to attend this event will not affect your attendance.

John Rubinstein

Biology in Action

Biology in Action returns in spectacular style on 8 March! Five interactive sessions delivered by renowned scientists to inspire and motivate you. Also hints and tips for revision and examination success are included. This is an all-day event. Please sign up and pay on Woodle. Places are limited.

Speakers:

- How animals behave and why – from moths to meerkats, Tristram Wyatt, Oxford University
- Emerging infections – new challenges needing new solutions, Julian Ma, St. George's Hospital Medical School
- A dive into the planet's beating heart – Greg Foot, science presenter and communicator
- From drug discovery to clinical trials and beyond – Gabriel Brooks, GE- Life Sciences
- How to be a genetic superhero – Kat Arney, science writer and broadcaster

For more information see:

<http://www.thetrainingpartnership.org.uk/study-day/biology-in-action-15/>

Linda Doyle

Thank you Woodhouse

Educate for Change is a charity run by a Woodhouse College teacher which pays for orphans go to school in Uganda. You donated money for their Christmas party which paid for 100 orphaned children to have a meal, a present and lots of music and dancing.

Appeal for Mobile Phones, Laptops and Football Shirts

Ms Stanton is going to Uganda in February and would like to take unwanted but working mobile phones, laptops (wipe personal data), and football shirts of any size. If you have any please take to student services beyond the social area.

Olivia Stanton

